

STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE STUDENT SERVICES GROUP
OCTOBER 20, 2014 3:30-5:00pm – MILLER OVAL

In attendance: C. Goldman, R. Hynes, M. Krell, H. Parkinson, T. Rousseau, C. Shane

Discussion about draft of white paper. Introduction needs to be clearer.

Synopsis: Student Services need to give student tools to achieve and retain success.

Hank will write about who did/did not participate in the “process”.

Goals needs explanatory sentence.

Training-it should be everybody’s responsibility to work with students that need services, e.g., diverse populations, students with autism spectrum disorder (ASD), veterans, commuters, etc. In addition to the service professionals, the faculty needs to be trained to assist with the needs of these students.

Awareness of and commitment to student support services and success strategies community-wide

Short term recommendation: resource booklet

Common themes:

Address efficiencies

Reorganization

Living/learning communities

First year experience

Learning opportunities

Universal design

Service learning

Professional/stand-alone advising

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Feckley