M.A. in History

» Official transcript of a bachelor’s degree preferably with (but not limited to) a major or minor in History from a regionally accredited institution

» Three letters of recommendation

» Professional resume

» Official results of the MAT or GRE

» For those pursuing the MA degree, a writing sample must be submitted. This may include an undergraduate level term paper or a published article and should be the equivalent of at least 10 typed, double-spaced pages and include footnotes and a bibliography

» Official transcripts of graduate level course work from a regionally accredited institution (if applicable)

» Graduate application and fee