122. Comments

- Overall experience was great, I'm glad I made the decision to step out of my comfort zone to move up to Massachusetts from Florida. I'm hoping to walk in this coming up graduation in May and will take a summer course to complete my final credits.
I am a member of the Police Concentration Program, which I absolutely view as an amazing opportunity that has been handled well. I believe that Director Lane, along with Dr. Marcel Beausoleil, have gone above and beyond to ensure the proper education and training of us all. They have made great impacts on my academic progress and have furthered my aspirations with in law enforcement. There have been several issues with other members of the faculty reacting, treating, or thinking of those in the program negatively.
- This is unfortunate, but the professors involved with the program have continually had the students back and supported us, assisting us in our success. I think this speaks volumes for the Criminal Justice program and professors.
- love FSC, parking in the winter is ruff but overall a great University of which is always improving.
