Fitchburg State University Today

Monday, Oct. 1, 2018 - Volume 9, Issue 3

University recognized for supporting black students

A new national study places Fitchburg State in the top 10 public institutions in the nation for serving black students.

The report card from the University of Southern California's Race and Equity Center weighed a series of benchmarks to determine individual institutional scores, including representation, gender, completion, and student-faculty ratios.

President Lapidus said the recognition comes as the university continues its intentional campaign to increase diversity among the student body. Efforts

INSTITUTIONS
WITH HIGHEST
AND LOWEST
EQUITY INDEX
SCORES

HIGHEST SCORE

COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY	EQUITY INDEX SCORE
Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts	3.50
University of California-San Diego	3.50
University of Louisville	3.50
University of Minnesota-Morris	3.25
Pennsylvania State University-Greater Allegheny	3.25
University of Vermont	3.25
University of Utah	3.25
University of Washington-Bothell Campus	3.25
Fitchburg State University	3.25
Framingham State University	3.25
Portland State University	3.25
University of West Alabama	3.25
University of Washington-Seattle Campus	3.25
Chicago State University	3.25
Rutgers University-Newark	3.25
University of Massachusetts-Boston	3.25
CUNY City College	3.25

like targeted student recruitment to investment in programs to support students and foster an inclusive campus climate is succeeding. "We are definitely moving in the right direction," he said.

Read the report

Speaker Series resumes today

The university Speaker Series continues today at 12:30 p.m. with a talk by Professor Kelly Morgan (Communications Media) on American Sign Language across campus and beyond. The talk will be held in the Center for Teaching and Learning in the Amelia V. Gallucci-Cirio Library. Refreshments will be served.

Learn about student voting trends at registration event today

The Crocker Center for Civic Engagement presents a talk by professors Paul Weizer and Shane Martin about current and historical voting data and trends for Fitchburg State students. The presentation will be held at Ellis White Lecture Hall in Hammond Hall today at 3:30 p.m. There will also be a voter registration drive at the event.

Pizza will be served following the presentations.

Annual security and fire safety report issued

The university has published the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report for 2018 and the complete document is now available for public view.

The report, compiled in accordance with federal law, is available to view online on the University Police website. All campus crime statistics required by the Clery Act are provided, including, for certain categories, the number of persons referred for campus disciplinary action. Information about crime prevention and safety awareness programs is also provided.

Read the report

Community Read continues Tuesday

Fitchburg State University's Community Read of 2018-19 - Celeste Ng's acclaimed novel Everything I Never Told You - continues with round table discussions led by English Honors Society students.

The discussions will be held 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Falcon Hub in Hammond Hall.

In Ng's novel, Everything I Never Told You, a family's secrets are closely tied to themes of immigration and ethnic identity.

Community Read Events

Workshops kick off National Novel Writing Month

The Amelia V. Gallucci-Cirio Library invites all to be part of National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo), which is a worldwide writing event in which participants challenge themselves to write a 50,000 word novel during the month of November.

Valuing enthusiasm, determination, and a deadline, NaNoWriMo is for anyone who has ever thought about writing a novel.

To prepare for NaNoWriMo, the library will be hosting a series of noveling workshops in October to help participants reach their 50,000-word goal. The first workshop will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 3 in the library archives. The event is open to all.

To sign up, visit the event's Facebook page or email Sherry Packard to be added to the mailing list of upcoming events.

"Flights of Imagination" public art mural on display in library

The Amelia V. Gallucci-Cirio Library is now home to a public art project that emerged in collaboration between the university and the Fitchburg Art Museum. "Flights of Imagination: Juliet, Kate, and Ophelia" is a threestory mural lining the stairwell of the library. with representations of tumbling books.

Artist KK Kozik with her mural in the library.

Artist KK Kozik's painted representation depicts 650 books tumbling down three floors of the library with a color scheme inspired by Shakespearean heroines Juliet (from Romeo and Juliet), Kate (from The Taming of the Shrew) and Ophelia (from Hamlet). The artist discussed the inspirations behind the work in a talk last week in the library.

Visit the artwork in the library stairwell to learn more.

3rd Congressional District candidates to debate Oct. 18

The new Elect North Central Coalition will host a debate for the candidates wing to represent the 3rd Congressional District at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 18 at Kent Reictal Hall in the Conlon Fine Arts Building.

Democratic candidate Lori Trahan, Republican candidate Rick Green and Independent candidate Mike Mullen have been invited to debate, where admission is free and open to the public.

Elect North Central is a coalition of organizations dedicated to making the democratic process accessible and assuring that local and regional issues are examined and addressed by candidates running for office.

Learn more

Police Program graduation ceremony viewable online

In case you missed it, the inaugural graduation ceremony of our police program is now available to view on the university's YouTube page. Click here to see the entire event.

CenterStage and cultural events

The Fitchburg State CenterStage arts and culture series continues in October with a performance by acclaimed vocal ensemble Della Mae at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20 in Weston Auditorium.

Sensitive yet assertive, intense yet playful, steeped in tradition yet undeniably current, Boston-based "alt-grassy" women have established a reputation as a charismatic live act. Composed of some of the finest players in bluegrass, Americana and beyond, this powerful collective chemistry has vocal, instrumental, and songwriting talent to spare. Expect a fun show with tight harmonies and energy galore.

Tickets ($28 adults, $25 for alumni, seniors and staff and $5 for students) can be purchased online.

On the Conlon Hall Media Wall: Icarian Dreams

"Icarian Dreams" is a series of images collected by local drone pilots and displayed on the media wall in the Conlon Hall lobby. The exhibit is on display through Wednesday, Oct. 31, and there will be a wall talk and reception in the Conlon lobby at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 24.

Della Mae performs Oct. 20.

Welcome new employees

Please welcome the following new members of the Fitchburg State community:

Cody Cleveland, maintainer in the Capital Planning & Maintenance Office, can be reached at x4226 or via email at cclevela@fitchburgstate.edu.

Timothy Jones, maintainer in the Capital Planning & Maintenance Office, can be reached at x4249 or via email at tjones18@fitchburgstate.edu.

Michael Lemere, maintainer in the Capital Planning & Maintenance Office, can be reached at x4246 or via email at mlemere@fitchburgstate.edu.

Mary Elizabeth (Beth) Holland, maintainer in the Capital Planning & Maintenance Office, can be reached at x3067 or via email at mholla15@fitchburgstate.edu.

Brian Borneman, Risk and Emergency Manager in the Environmental Health & Safety Office, can be reached at x4801 or via email at bbornem1@fitchburgstate.edu.

Maria Morales Gomez, Receiving Teller II in the Student Accounts Office, can be reached at x3184 or via email at mmorale6@fitchburgstate.edu.

Staff notes

Amber Deschenes and Marylyn Gainan (Graduate and Continuing Education) will be presenting at the upcoming UPCEA 2018 New England Region Conference. Their presentation, entitled "Why Webinars? Because They Work!: The Evolution of Fitchburg State University's Webinar Program," will describe Fitchburg State's use of webinars as marketing tools. UPCEA is the leading association for professional, continuing and online education.

Faculty notes

Professor Michael Greenwood (Business Administration) has been asked to make the opening address, and to act as the Master of Ceremonies, for this year's HUB WEEK Open Doors Conference, to be held on Tuesday Oct. 9, at the Thomas P. O'Neil, Federal Building in Boston. The event is a collaboration between the U.S. Small Business Administration, MIT, Boston Globe, Harvard University, and Massachusetts General Hospital.

Professor Susan Wadsworth

(Humanities) will have her pastel and ink works on view in three different locations in October. She is one of several in the Women's Caucus for Art, the Northern Massachusetts branch, which will have works at the Sitka Gallery at 454 Main Street in Fitchburg. The theme of that show is Bearing Witness, and one work will be her children at the exhibition of Christo's Gates in New York City. She will also have at least one work in the Southern Vermont Artists member show in Manchester, Vt. And her studio in the Monadnock area of southern New Hampshire is one of many

Fall Kanji Landscape (2017) by Susan Wadsworth that will be open Oct. 6-8 as part of the 11th Annual Fall Foliage Art Studio Tour. Her new work shows an experimentation with Asian ink atop colorfully blended pastels, evoking Japanese and Chinese line and calligraphy. Click here for more information.

Save the dates!

- The campus will host three Open Houses for prospective students. This fall's events will be Saturday, Oct. 13, Oct. 27 and Nov. 10.
- President Lapidus will host panel discussions for faculty and staff at 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 7 at Kent Recital Hall.
- The holiday tree lighting will be held at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 29.

Join Our Mailing List

Fitchburg State University | 978-665-3000 | fitchburgstate.edu

STAY CONNECTED:

