122. Comments

1.	My experience with my first academic advisor, which changed three times over my career, was not beneficial at all, and I regret not receiving good guidance at the beginning of my journey at Fitchburg State. My current academic advisor has been phenomenal and has had her work cut out for her since I was floundering around for years at school with no direction or assistance from the original advisor.
2.	I feel something that could improve is the communication between departments and communication with students themselves. I ran into issues over the years at FSU when things were not communicated properly, which caused unneeded stress, anxiety, and rushing around campus to get things signed or to get work completed.
