122. Comments

1.	My experience in the Graduate Nursing/MSN Program has been awful. There has been little to no support from faculty, advisors/directors, and even the administrative staff. I would not recommend this program to any of my nursing colleagues.
2.	I have found some professors to be very unhelpful and sometimes petty while others have been absolutely wonderful. One of the courses within the Forensic Nursing Program should have been one of the hardest courses and taught everything on the technical side of this major. The course was actually a joke. In a masters level program all we did is two very basic book reports- yes I stated book reports and a final exam where the answers were verbatim from the text. It is sad that the professor has passed from a personal battle of cancer but I truly hope that school takes the opportunity to revamp this course and make it what it should be. Otherwise the program will continue to let down it's students.
3.	Finding my own clinical placement and not having classes offered according to the Suggested Sequence of Graduate Courses for the Online FN Program made it difficult to finish my degree in 7 semesters. It took me 10, which is not terribly extended, but it took longer than expected. It was frustrating financially, especially when I had to pay out of pocket for classes on top of my students loans due to losing deferment.
