10. We are always looking for feedback to help us with quality and improvements. Is there something you would like to share with us regarding facilities or your program that wasn't captured above?

1. Parking situation needs to be improved and there are frequent issues with printers in technology labs, but there are few other complaints I have loved my time at FSU

2. It would have been nice for this program to have offered 3-4 hybrid courses since the beginning of the program instead of just two. Many of us enrolled in the program could have graduated much more sooner. This program should offer up to 4 hybrid courses a semester for those in the field who have the option/opportunity to take more than 6 credits a semester.
Some of the classes for the education math minor are a bit challenging for students who are not in fact math minors. A few of the courses were geared more towards the math majors and computer science courses. Also I feel as though the math minor for educators is a bit rigid and should allow some more flexibility.
3. Scheduling classes began to get much harder come junior year because ed classes were not offered in class but only as a grad class online but the coursework was a major requirement. Some courses continued to interfere with one another and some were switched days and times completely well after registration time which made scheduling difficult.
4. I think it is important for transfer students to be accurately advised. The general adviser does not know all of the requirements, transferable credits, and subtleties of each particular department. When I initially transferred to FSU, I was advised to register for 5 courses that would count towards my degree. Two weeks into my first semester, I was excited, motivated, and optimistic. Unfortunately, after talking to my education professor, I was shocked and chagrined to discover that I did not need to take 3 of the 5 courses I was registered for. I dropped them, and it cost me an extra semester. Not the way I wanted to start my career at FSU. Eventually, I met with the adviser who had misguided me and my grievance was met with a small shrug of the shoulders. This incompetence should be addressed and remedied so it does not happen to another wide-eyed transfer student in the future.
