

Two-year program for M.S. in Counseling, Clinical Mental Health

Students complete the majority of their coursework in 4 semesters, starting with the summer session. The internship year of the 600 field hours spans from the Fall to the Spring semesters.

Summer I	COUN 7010 Counseling Theories (3 credits) COUN 7030 Intro to Professional Counseling: Issues and Skills (3 credits)
Summer II	COUN 8130: Psychopathology I (MH Focus, 3 credits) COUN 8015: Research and Program Evaluation (3 credits)
Fall Year 1	COUN 7005: Professional Practice, Standards, and Ethics (3 credits) COUN 8710: Family Systems: Models and Interventions (3 credits) ^{1, 2} COUN 8300: Psychological Testing and Assessment (MH Focus, 3 credits) COUN 8132: Psychopathology II (with 50 hours field experience, 3 credits) ^{2, 3, 6}
Spring 1	COUN 8901: Counseling Techniques and Case Analysis: MH Coun (Practicum, 6 credits) ^{1, 2, 3, 4, 5} COUN 8215: Lifestyle and Career Development (3 credits) COUN 8030: Lifespan Development (3 credits)
Summer	COUN 8190 Social and Cultural Foundations: Issues in Counseling (3 credits) COUN 8700: Group Work and Leadership in Mental Health (3 credits) ^{1, 2} COUN 8625: Crisis Intervention for Counselors (3 credits) ^{1, 2}
Fall Year 2	COUN 9091 Internship (6 credits) ⁷ COUN 8140: Alcohol Abuse and Other Addictive Disorders (3 credits)
Spring Year 2	COUN 9091 Internship (6 credits)

Total Credits = 60

Notes:

- 1: Course requires COUN 7010 as a prerequisite
- 2: Course requires COUN 7030 as a prerequisite
- 3: Course requires COUN 8130 as a prerequisite
- 4: Course requires COUN 8132 as a prerequisite
- 5: Course requires COUN 8300 as a prerequisite
- 6: Requires admission to the counseling program
- 7: Internship requires all coursework with the exception of 8140 to be completed.